SUMMARY

An Architect with a year and half of design experience, later changed my profession to UI/UX designer. I am defined by my curiosity and attention to details, I'm always seeking for ways to expand my knowledge and skills in this field. Known for delivering accessible, inclusive designs and driving collaboration with cross-functional teams to tackle complex challenges. Currently seeking full-time opportunities to apply my expertise and passion for creating meaningful, accessible designs that drive innovation and solve real-world problems. Open to a UX-focused role to leverage comprehensive skills from research to UI design, or a UI-specific position to showcase strength in visual design, layout and typography.
